

I oppose further media consolidation and strongly urge the FCC to maintain the current ownership rules. Further concentration of media control is a threat to our democracy. That cannot be allowed to happen.